Draka shall not be liable to the Buyer in damages or otherwise for any delay in delivery of the Products or performance of the Services.
- 5.2 Once the Products are available for delivery and in consideration of confirming the most suitable delivery date Draka may require the Buyer to sign its vesting certificate and if the Buyer shall fail to execute such vesting certificate when required by Draka then Draka shall be entitled to execute the same as the Buyer's lawful attorney and for this purpose the Buyer hereby appoints Draka as its lawful attorney to execute such vesting certificate on behalf of the Buyer and to complete such certificate in any other way required and perfect the same.

Claims in respect of Products which arrive damaged or in damaged packaging or are short delivered must be notified to Draka in writing within 5 working days after receipt. - 5.5 Except where Draka has agreed to store the Products (and any storage for more than 3 months from the delivery date shall be charged at commercial rates), once any Products are ready for delivery or collection Draka may give written notice to the Buyer requiring the Buyer to take delivery of the Products or (where the Products are sold ex works or FCA UK port) to arrange for collection of or to provide delivery instructions for the Products within 7 days. All costs incurred by Draka for storage (including appropriate insurance) shall be paid by the Buyer within 30 days after submission of a supplementary invoice by Draka. Draka shall also be entitled to charge for storage at Draka's works at a commercial rate, which shall be paid for in the same way.

- 6.1 Draka shall repair or (at its option) replace any Products which prove to be defective under proper use within a period of 12 calendar months from the date of resale or use of the Products by the Buyer or 18 months from the date of delivery of the Products by Draka (whichever period first expires), provided that:
- 6.1.1 notice in writing giving details of the defects is given to Draka as soon as the defects become apparent;
 - 6.1.2 where the Products were manufactured by Draka, the defects are shown to Draka's satisfaction to have arisen solely from Draka's faulty design, workmanship or materials;
 - 6.1.3 the defective Products are returned to Draka's works at the Buyer's expense, if so requested by Draka; and
 - 6.1.4 in the case of components or accessories not manufactured by Draka, Draka's liability under this Condition shall not in any circumstances be greater than any corresponding liability of the supplier of such components or accessories to Draka. Any repaired or replaced Products shall be redelivered by Draka free of charge to the original point of delivery.

- 6.2 Draka shall not be liable in respect of any defect or damage to the Products which is caused by ordinary wear and tear, lack of maintenance, improper use, misuse or abuse, improper or unsuitable installation, alterations, modifications or dismantling, any third party or parties or any other cause beyond Draka's reasonable control. As a result of any investigation by Draka that shows the defects do not come within clause 6.1.2 above, Draka reserves the right to invoice the Buyer and the Buyer shall pay promptly the reasonable costs of such investigation.

- 6.4 For the purposes of this Condition "improper use" means a use which has not been either approved for the relevant Product in Draka's sales literature or quotation or otherwise approved by Draka in writing.

- 7.4 If any drum is still held by the Buyer 6 months (or such other period as may be agreed) after delivery, the drum will be invoiced by Draka and paid for by the Buyer at the price set out in Draka's Schedule of Drum Charges, a copy of which will be provided to the Buyer on request. The full invoiced price will be refunded if the drum is received back in good condition within a period of 6 months after the date of such invoice. After the expiry of this further period, part of the invoiced price will be refunded (subject to the same condition) in accordance with the Schedule of Drum Charges.

8. TECHNICAL DATA

All catalogues, brochures, specifications or other technical characteristics, data or other descriptive matter included in any sales promotional material or in Draka's tender are intended to give a general description of the Products offered and shall not form part of the Contract unless Draka expressly agrees otherwise in writing.

- 10.1 All prices shown in Draka's current price lists are subject to alteration without notice. Such alteration shall not affect any order placed by the Buyer and accepted by Draka in writing prior to such alteration, subject to any Metal or Currency Variation.
- 10.2 Where Draka's quoted prices for the Products are based on a metal price for Copper, Lead or Aluminium, then unless otherwise agreed by Draka in writing the Price shall be adjusted in respect of the metal content of the Products to the price ruling on the next market day following receipt by Draka of the Order. The metal price for Copper Grade A shall be the official London Metal Exchange "Settlement" Price and producers premium or such other basis as may apply. The metal price for Lead and Aluminium shall be the London Metal Exchange "Settlement" Price or such other basis as may apply. The Buyer shall also reimburse Draka for any Contango costs incurred by it.
- 10.3 The Buyer shall reimburse Draka on demand for all costs and losses (including without limitation Contango and Backwardation and financing costs) which are incurred by Draka in respect of metals booked or purchased in order to fulfil the Contract and/or which arise from failure by the Buyer to take delivery of all the Products or any of them within the period stated in the Draka offer or on the Order Acknowledgement or any longer period agreed by Draka in writing.

- 10.4 Where the Price is in a currency other than pounds sterling, the Price shall be adjusted at any time prior to acceptance of the Order to take account of any adverse change in the relevant currency exchange rate against pounds sterling. The Buyer shall reimburse Draka on demand for all costs and losses incurred by Draka in respect of foreign currency sold forward to cover payments due under the Contract which arise from the Buyer's failure to take delivery of and pay for the Products in accordance with the Contract.
- 10.5 Draka's prices include the cost of routine testing carried out in accordance with Draka's standard procedures. Where additional tests are requested by the Buyer, these will be charged extra and may affect delivery. If the Buyer wishes to witness any tests all costs so incurred including inspection fees, travelling and other expenses shall be paid by the Buyer.
- 10.6 If the cost to Draka of fulfilling any of its obligations under the Contract is increased by any act or omission on the part of the Buyer or by the coming into force after the date of the Contract of any law or regulation having the force of law in any part of the world, then the Price shall be adjusted to cover such additional costs.
- 10.7 All prices are net of any discounts, unless otherwise so stated.

11. PAYMENT

At Draka's discretion and without any liability on its part Draka shall be entitled to cease trading with the Buyer if the Buyer's account is overdue. Draka shall be entitled to statutory interest and to a fixed sum in respect of any late payment in accordance with the Late Payment of Commercial Debts (Interest) Act 1998 as amended. Payment on time is of the essence.
- 11.2 Any consignment or part consignment of the Products or supply of Services shall, if so directed by Draka, be treated as the subject of a separate contract and be paid for accordingly.
- 11.3 Draka shall be entitled from time to time to require adequate credit references from the Buyer and to require security for payment by means of a guarantee from such party as Draka deems appropriate.

14.4 Draka may at any time serve a written notice on the Buyer stating that legal and beneficial ownership of all or part of the Products shall pass to the Buyer. Ownership of such Products shall thereupon immediately pass to the Buyer without prejudice to the Buyer's obligation to pay for such Products.
